

STAROSPÍŠSKÁ
DOMÁCA

DOMÁCA

The word “home-made” captures the drink's origins and the way our forefathers distilled their traditional spirits – in their homes, as a reward for the hard work they put in every day in the rolling fields of the northern Spiš region.

STAROSPIŠSKÁ

The words “Old Spiš” tell us that it was in the Spiš region that our ancestors came up with their original recipes, which date all the way back to 1756.

STAROSPIŠSKÁ DOMÁCA

A range of authentic and exclusive alcoholic beverages. By blending our years of distilling experience with the traditions forged by our ancestors, we have crafted these extraordinary drinks.

NATURE'S BOUNTY

All our fruit and grain spirits are made entirely with fruit and grain sourced from local farmers and growers.

Only the finest quality ingredients go into every drop of Starospišská Domáca.

NATURE'S INTIMATE TOUCH

The process of ageing the product in oak casks intensifies the intimate bond the Slovak people feel with the unspoilt nature of the Upper Spiš region.

Besides infusing a delicate amber colour, this process adds extra aromas to the spirit and enriches the original flavour contours with the sweet and woody notes that emanate from the carefully selected casks.

STAROSPIŠSKÁ DOMÁCA RYE 50%

Starospišská Domáca Ražný 50% is an honest rye distillate. The ancient recipes of our ancestors have been recorded in writing since 1756, although rye was cultivated much earlier. It was grown primarily in the mountain and foothill areas of the High Tatras, where it was a well-deserved reward for the hard work of our fathers due to its resistance and abundant fertility in the mountainous fields of northern Spiš. In connection with the Tatra water and aging in our own oak barrels, Nestville Whiskey creates a unique distillate with a distinct aroma and a mild spicy taste.

STAROSPIŠSKÁ DOMÁCA BARLEY 50%

Starospišská Domáca Jačmenný 50% is an honest barley distillate. According to ancient documents, the history of distilling in northern Spiš dates back to 1756, although it is precisely barley that began to be cultivated here already in the 10th century. Our ancestors used barley as a medicinal crop, for sustenance and, last but not least, for the preparation of honest spirits. The orally inherited art of distilling by our ancestors, the Tatra water and aging in our own oak barrels for Nestville Whiskey brings a drink with an unmistakable sweet taste and perfect harmony.
